SUNDAY WORSHIP

The message was based on Revelation 10, our calling in the face of the end. The message is both sweet and sour. As God's people we have a responsibility to share both sides of the truth.

The machinery has somehow lost the capacity to get the podcast to work on the website, but John F. tells me that he is keeping the recordings of the sermons so that when we get the new equipment, he will be able to put them into archives so we can listen to them.

To Ponder. . .

Gold in its native state is but dull, unornamental stuff, and only lowborn metals excite the admiration of the ignorant with an ostentatious glitter. However, like the rest of the world, I still go on underrating men of gold and glorifying men of mica. – Mark Twain, author and humorist (1835-1910)

WEDDING UNSHOWER FOR AMBER (KRAUS) AND DANNY. Gifts may be left in the church foyer.

First Grade Wisdom:

A 1st grade school teacher presented each child in her classroom the 1st half of a well-known proverb and asked them to come up with the remainder of the proverb. I'll give you one a week until they run out. Hope this wisdom makes life easier for you!

Don't change horses	until they stop running.
